				<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

If your medical license is restricted, temporary, or not in good standing; include any relevant documentation and a typed or printed explanation of the circumstances in Part 10. Additional Information.

Part 6. Professional Experience

You must establish that you have practiced medicine as a physician (M.D. or D.O.) in the U.S. for at least four years to be eligible for designation.

NOTE: In calculating whether you meet the requirement of four years of practice as a physician, do NOT count your post graduate medical training in an internship or residency program. You can, however, count the time you practiced medicine on the basis of a post-residency fellowship.

Submit evidence to establish your professional experience, such as letters of employment verification, evaluations, certificates of completion, business tax returns and the business license covering tax returns period (for self-employed physicians), or medical liability or malpractice insurance policy. A medical liability/malpractice insurance policy, by itself, is insufficient to establish professional experience, but may be submitted to supplement other evidence listed above. If you need extra space to complete this section, use the space provided in Part 10. Additional Information.
